

SCOTTISH CRIMINAL CASES REVIEW COMMISSION

NEWS RELEASE

The Scottish Criminal Cases Review Commission has referred to the High Court the case of Alan Petrie Fleming Falconer in respect of his Conviction. Mr Falconer was convicted at Arbroath Sheriff Court on 10 March 1996 of Shameless Indecency and sentenced to 3 years imprisonment. The referral is based on the Commission's consideration of the case of Webster v Dominick 2003 SCCR 525

Notes for Editors

The Scottish Criminal Cases Review Commission was established as an independent body on 1 April 1999 to review alleged miscarriages of justice in Scottish convictions and/or sentences. Under section 194 A to L of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (as inserted by section 25 of the Crime and Punishment (Scotland) Act 1997) the Commission can refer a case to the High Court if it believes that a miscarriage of justice may have occurred and that it is in the interests of justice that a reference should be made. Once a case is referred to the High Court by the Commission, it will proceed as a normal appeal.

The Commission operates with a Board of 7 Members, one of whom is the Chairman, a Chief Executive, a Director of Administration, 2 Senior Legal Officers, 8 Legal Officers and administrative support staff.

The Commission will disclose the fact that a case has been referred. However, as the Commission operates under strict statutory non-disclosure provisions, it is not possible for the Commission to disclose any further information about such cases. The Commission will not release any information regarding cases in which no referral has been made or in respect of cases under review.

For any further general information about the Commission please contact Mr Chris Reddick, Director of Administration, SCCRC, 5th Floor Portland House, 17 Renfield Street, Glasgow, Tel: 0141 270 7030, e-mail: creddick@sccrc.org.uk or visit the Commission's website at www.sccrc.org.uk
